[20] GuardBachmeyer (Male): "Please step away. This entry is for high-priority HHC business only."
[1] GuardBachmeyer (Male): "Are you here on HHC business?"
[9] Player: "<Show him the minister's HHC access card.> Is this official enough for you?"
[7] Player: "What's through here?"
[6] Player: "I'll be going now."
[10] GuardBachmeyer (Male): "Huh. I didn't realize we were still using those iridescent stickers. But this looks right."
[8] GuardBachmeyer (Male): "If you're not cleared to know, then I'm definitely not cleared to tell you."
[11] GuardBachmeyer (Male): "I'll just need you to register your weapons with a Revised Request to Carry 32-B form. Each weapon will need a separate form. "
[26] Player: "That's ridiculous."
[27] Player: "You'd better be joking."
[13] Player: "Fine."
[29] GuardBachmeyer (Male): "It's procedure."
[28] GuardBachmeyer (Male): "I'm not authorized to employ humor on the job, sir."
[12] GuardBachmeyer (Male): "Now, let's see... damn it, when did I run out of forms?!"
[30] Player: "I can wait."
[31] Player: "Oh, what a SHAME."
[35] Player: "How about you save us both some trouble and let me through?"
[41] GuardBachmeyer (Male): "You don't have to be sarcastic about it."
[36] GuardBachmeyer (Male): "I was going to suggest that myself."
[32] GuardBachmeyer (Male): "Well, how nice for you! Do you have any idea how long it takes to request new forms? Or how many citations I'll get for "impeding HHC business" in the meantime?"
[42] GuardBachmeyer (Male): "Look, you don't have time to wait on new forms, and I can't afford the citations for impeding HHC business. So I'm gonna save us both some trouble and waive your forms."
[37] GuardBachmeyer (Male): "Look, you don't have time to wait on new forms, and I can't afford the citations for impeding HHC business. So I'm gonna save us both some trouble and waive your forms."
[38] Player: "Mighty fine of you."
[39] Player: "<Roll your eyes.>"
[40] Player: "Fine, but I suggested it first."
[16] GuardBachmeyer (Male): "Just know there are a bunch of guards upstairs, and they're all high on Dervish Mist and low on patience. So, try anything funny, and they'll paint the walls with your guts."
