[89] EstherBlaine (Female): "Excuse me. I'm Esther Blaine - Spacer's Choice actuary. I overheard your talk with Abernathy. I hope you're not thinking about getting him that medicine."
[91] EstherBlaine (Female): "Abernathy is a well-known hypochondriac. Anthrocillin is wasted on him. You're better off selling it to me instead."
[94] Player: "What do you need it for?"
[95] EstherBlaine (Female): "I probably shouldn't tell you. Don't want you implicated for what I'm trying to do."
[113] Player: "That's not shady at all."
[114] Player: "Have it your way."
[117] EstherBlaine (Female): "I'm doing right by the town. I'll tell you that much. You bring me that medicine, and I'll see that it goes to the right people."
[92] Player: "I'll think about it."
[109] EstherBlaine (Female): "That's all I can ask of you."
