[233] LilyaHagen (Female): "Before we go any further, I want you to keep an open mind. Can you do that for me, Captain?"
[236] Player: "This had better be good."
[391] Player: "I guess that depends on what we're talking about."
[235] Player: "I can do that."
[392] LilyaHagen (Female): "You call that an open mind? All right. Here goes."
[237] LilyaHagen (Female): "Aliens. I'm talking about aliens. They're the ones responsible for the deaths at Ten Eighty-Four, and who knows what else. We have to put a stop to it. "
[242] Player: "Aliens?"
[239] Player: "Really?"
[260] Player: "<Say nothing.>"
[238] Player: "Aliens."
[241] LilyaHagen (Female): "Hear me out."
[240] LilyaHagen (Female): "I'm saying it's aliens. I'm not asking you to like it. I'm not even asking you to believe it. But I need to act on this threat to the colony, and I can't do it alone."
[244] LilyaHagen (Female): "I assume you have questions."
[246] Player: "Skip to the part where I get paid. I don't care what hallucinogens you're on."
[248] Player: "This is completely insane."
[245] Player: "A few."
[249] LilyaHagen (Female): "Remember what I said about keeping an open mind?"
[247] LilyaHagen (Female): "Huh. You took that better than I thought."
[250] LilyaHagen (Female): "If we're gonna see this through, I'll need your trust and commitment. Now's the time for setting doubts aside."
[285] Player: "How do you know I'm not an alien spy on a mission to silence you?"
[261] Player: "When you say "aliens," what are we talking about here?"
[286] LilyaHagen (Female): "Sharing my findings took a calculated risk. If you were a spy, I doubt you'd even realize it. Only your cells would know."
[264] LilyaHagen (Female): "A conspiracy. One carried out with the help of human collaborators, assuming they haven't all been replaced."
[291] Player: "Well that's comforting."
[292] Player: "<Cross your eyes.> We're coming to get you, Lilya."
[287] Player: "Enough. Tell me what needs to be done."
[263] Player: "I really don't know what to make of this, Lilya."
[284] LilyaHagen (Female): "This is an invasion of our very cells. That damned gas is mixing our nuclein with Halcyon biology to twist us. Change us. Make us more like those monsters on Monarch."
[293] LilyaHagen (Female): "Probably nothing to worry about as long as you don't start growing tentacles or slowing down time. "
[320] LilyaHagen (Female): "I'm not laughing, Captain. They got Tobias already. I won't let them get me too. "
[290] LilyaHagen (Female): "If you don't believe me, go pay a visit to the puppet master who's working against her own kind."
[449] Player: "I joined SubLight so I could do crimes. Not save humanity."
[450] LilyaHagen (Female): "We'll get back to "business as usual" when this is behind us. Promise."
[16] LilyaHagen (Female): "Dr. Chartrand is the crooked psychopath behind the gas experiments. She sold out her species. I need you to put a bullet through her skull. "
[19] Player: "Murder isn't covered under my contractor employment agreement. "
[18] Player: "Sounds messy, but I'll take the job."
[303] Player: "Why does Dr. Chartrand need to die?"
[425] Player: "The little green bastards must pay."
[357] Player: "I haven't seen any evidence of aliens."
[302] LilyaHagen (Female): "Just think of it as salvaging hope from the smoking wreckage of humanity. "
[17] LilyaHagen (Female): "This keycard will get you through the front door of her Byzantium estate. Don't ask how I got it. You might not like the answer."
[305] LilyaHagen (Female): "She's a research scientist, and a damn good one. Before UDL poached her, she engineered a point two percent increase in cystipig juiciness."
[426] LilyaHagen (Female): "Terrific. That go-getter initiative will carry you far in SubLight. "
[358] LilyaHagen (Female): "No kidding. That's how they want it."
[24] LilyaHagen (Female): "This is your initiation into a future with SubLight. Want a steady position in our ranks? Buy one with a bullet."
[304] LilyaHagen (Female): "By now the other side knows what you're doing. Don't trust anything Chartrand says. She's compromised down to the bone. Maybe even deeper than that."
[322] LilyaHagen (Female): "Now she's doing the same thing with humanity. Her fingerprints were all over Station Ten Eighty-Four. You saw what she did to her team. "
[359] LilyaHagen (Female): "When I lined up the evidence in my spreadsheet, there was only one possible conclusion looking back at me. This is my data talking, not my anxiety or lack of sleep."
[460] Player: "What do I get for joining up?"
[461] Player: "I don't know about this, Lilya."
[396] Player: "Your concern for the fate of our species is admirable. "
[395] Player: "When did SubLight get so principled?"
[462] LilyaHagen (Female): "Well, there's your usual fee. What else do you want, a promotion? It's yours. Even better - I'll owe you one. "
[463] LilyaHagen (Female): "If you don't want the job, just walk away. I'm giving you first dibs because you've seen what's at stake."
[398] LilyaHagen (Female): "You've got me all wrong."
[397] LilyaHagen (Female): "It's cute that you'd think that about me. "
[399] LilyaHagen (Female): "I just want to add "Savior of Humanity" to my resume. I've got ambitions outside of this office, you know. Besides, this way SubLight gets first dibs on alien salvage."
[400] Player: "Ah. Now it all makes sense."
[401] LilyaHagen (Female): "You don't just turn down an exclusive deal on extraterrestrial scrap. That's amateur shit."
