[1] RosemaryKwan (Female): "I appreciate the company and all, but you really ought to leave. You don't want to be seen around me."
[8] Player: "Why not?"
[9] Player: "I go where I want."
[7] Player: "I'll leave you be."
[10] RosemaryKwan (Female): "Because I'm sick. You don't want to associate with people in the sick house. We're not worth your time. "
[11] RosemaryKwan (Female): "Hey, keep it down. That kind of talk's bound to put sights on the both of us. "
[12] RosemaryKwan (Female): "I'm in about as much trouble as I can be. No reason you ought to be tarnished by association. People are gonna talk."
[13] Player: "I don't mind."
[16] Player: "Why? What's going on here?"
[15] Player: "You make it sound like I'm being watched."
[14] Player: "I'm leaving."
[20] RosemaryKwan (Female): "I don't know which company you work for. But if it's Spacer's Choice, boss can still write you up for fraternizing with an incompetent worker."
[19] RosemaryKwan (Female): "Figured it was obvious. I got sick. Couldn't get better on my own. Got moved here for everyone's sake."
[18] RosemaryKwan (Female): "The walls talk, is all. We all got sights on each other. Any of us breaks company protocol, boss is gonna hear about it from six different mouths."
[21] RosemaryKwan (Female): "Maybe you don't know this, but there's a real simple reason you don't talk to the plagued. You don't want what we've got."
[29] Player: "I've got some training. I could take a look at you."
[23] Player: "I'm not worried. I don't get sick often."
[24] Player: "I should go."
[30] RosemaryKwan (Female): "Don't - please. I could get into a lot of trouble. "
[25] RosemaryKwan (Female): "It's not the plague you gotta worry about catching. It's my attitude."
[39] Player: "What kind of trouble?"
[40] Player: "If you insist."
[38] Player: "You obviously need help."
[42] RosemaryKwan (Female): "People trouble. Lazy worker like me getting special treatment from some out-of-town physicker like you? People will talk."
[41] RosemaryKwan (Female): "Afraid I do. Don't sit right with me, is all. Good-for-nothing like me, getting special treatment from some fancy outsider."
[43] RosemaryKwan (Female): "That's kind of you to say, I suppose. But I don't need help. What I need is to understand my own folly."
[37] RosemaryKwan (Female): "Company always tells us - weak spirits lead to weak bodies. If I didn't want to fall sick with plague, maybe I should've worked harder. Maybe I should've taken more pride in my work."
[45] Player: "That's ridiculous. You can't blame yourself because you fell sick."
[46] Player: "It's a little late for that."
[51] RosemaryKwan (Female): "I really wish you wouldn't say those sorts of things. I told you once already. People could be listening."
[52] RosemaryKwan (Female): "I'm glad you see things my way. And not for nothing, but I appreciate you giving me the time of day."
[53] RosemaryKwan (Female): "I'm feeling a touch faint. If you don't mind, I'd like to be alone for a spell."
[6] RosemaryKwan (Female): "I don't want any trouble."
[61] Player: "Esther said she was going to distribute some medicine to those who needed it."
[62] RosemaryKwan (Female): "Esther's got medication? How? Did the boss get a new shipment? I'm sorry, it's just - I thought we couldn't spare the medicine."
[63] RosemaryKwan (Female): "No, I'm sorry. I can't accept help from Esther. If I deserved treatment, I wouldn't be here."
[44] Player: "I'll leave you be."
[64] Player: "You're wrong."
[65] Player: "Suit yourself."
[67] RosemaryKwan (Female): "Why?"
[66] RosemaryKwan (Female): "I appreciate you telling me, leastways."
[73] Player: "I heard the company's looking to promote healthy workers."
[72] Player: "You're not doing yourself any favors, punishing yourself like this."
[75] RosemaryKwan (Female): "I didn't know that. I guess the best thing I can do for Edgewater is get healthy. Dead workers can't do much except fill a grave."
[74] RosemaryKwan (Female): "That is exactly what I have been doing. Not my place to dole out punishment. Not even against myself."
[71] Player: "Because I said so. Stop moping and take the damned medicine."
[78] RosemaryKwan (Female): "All right, you made your point. If Esther offers to treat me, I won't turn her down."
