[1] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Hello, dearie! Why, I don't believe I've seen you before. And with sweet cheeks like those, I'd remember."
[2] Abigail Edwards (Female): "What can Auntie Abigail do for you?"
[93] Player: "I've been asked to pick up a Caffenoid supplement."
[10] Player: "I've been asked to pick up medicine. Some kind of caffeine? Or... steroids?"
[216] Player: "Are you in charge of handing out medicine?"
[6] Player: "Nothing for now, thanks."
[94] Abigail Edwards (Female): "And what a helpful young man you are! Nothing like a little pill to liven up the spirits."
[11] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Bless your little heart, you must mean Caffenoid. "If it's pep you need, one pill does the deed!""
[219] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Yes, indeed. Someone's got to keep Stellar Bay's people healthy and energized!"
[146] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Who's your lucky "friend," dearie?"
[221] Player: "I guess so."
[220] Player: "You certainly seem excited about your job."
[148] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Now, dearie, who's this pickup for?"
[223] Abigail Edwards (Female): "You certainly seem like you could use a Pep-You-Up, dearie."
[222] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Oh, but I am. I get to see plenty of my neighbors here, and I do dearly love a little gossip."
[147] Player: "Actually, the pills are for me."
[151] Abigail Edwards (Female): "I'm so sorry, but with the Iconoclasts and the marauder filth chasing away what little trade we get, I'm afraid I have to reserve my supply for Stellar Bay residents."
[177] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Our reserves have gotten so low, I've even had to start locking the supply room upstairs! Isn't it a shame what some people will do to get a little extra?"
[192] Player: "You don't give five-finger discounts, Auntie?"
[190] Player: "You can't trust people these days."
[193] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Aren't you a naughty boy! "
[194] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Except for you. I can tell - you've got one of those faces."
[196] Abigail Edwards (Female): "There are no discounts here. But Auntie knows what to do with mischievous young men like you."
[191] Player: "Oh. That's just AWFUL."
[198] Player: "Let's change the subject. Right now."
[197] Player: "What?"
[203] Player: "What?!"
[201] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Oh, I'd have to talk to Mr. Nandi about you, of course."
[195] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Isn't it just?"
[199] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Of course. Is there anyone else needing a pickup from Auntie Abigail?"
[202] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Anyway, is there anyone else needing a pickup from Auntie Abigail?"
[152] Abigail Edwards (Female): "I'd make an exception for you if I could, my little cherub. Is there... anyone else needing a special pickup from Auntie Abigail?"
[200] Player: "Nyoka."
[104] Player: "That's private."
[105] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Now, now, there's no keeping secrets from Auntie Abigail! I'll tease it out of you one way or another."
[149] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Also, I really do have to enter someone's name for the allotment. After all, I have to keep track of where our little pills wander off to."
[187] Player: "Rather nosy, aren't you?"
[186] Player: "I suppose that's reasonable."
[188] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Now, now, dearie. It is my job, after all."
[189] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Indeed. Now, how about you tell Auntie who this pickup's for?"
[112] Player: "I dunno, Auntie. You'll have to pry that secret from my sweet little cheeks."
[235] Player: "Never mind."
[12] Player: "It's for Nyoka."
[113] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Aren't you a saucy thing! "
[153] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Oh. Her."
[150] Abigail Edwards (Female): "I may not be a fresh young thing any more, but with age comes experience, dearie."
[154] Abigail Edwards (Female): "It's none of my business, but I have told her Dr. Williams would bump up her monthly allotment if only she'd join MSI. Contribute like the rest of us."
[178] Player: "Uh-huh. Why don't you show me a thing or two?"
[179] Player: "This got weird fast."
[17] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Now I've gone and said too much. And you know me, dearie, I don't like to pry."
[181] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Much as I'd love to, my rheumatism is especially fierce at the moment, and I'm all out of my medicine. "
[183] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Maybe some other time, then. When Auntie's personal allotment of Stimu-Lotion is restored."
[45] Player: "There must be some way I can increase Nyoka's allotment."
[141] Player: "Doesn't anyone else on Monarch have Caffenoid?"
[140] Player: "When can Nyoka get her next dose?"
[182] Abigail Edwards (Female): "But I'd hate to send you away empty-handed. You were here for Caffenoid, weren't you? Who's it for?"
[143] Abigail Edwards (Female): "If so, I would love to know where. SubLight's supplies don't come cheap."
[142] Abigail Edwards (Female): "I'm afraid it'll be the better part of a month. Our dear Nyoka tends to exhaust her supply rather quickly."
[204] Abigail Edwards (Female): "I'm afraid not."
[205] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Believe me, there's nothing I'd love better than to help you, but there's not much I can do."
[46] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Dr. Williams managed the town's allotments from his terminal upstairs. Even I can't access them."
[162] Player: "I thought you were in charge around here, Auntie. You sure ought to be."
[52] Player: "Where can I find this Dr. Williams?"
[131] Player: "Enough sweet talk. Get me Caffenoid, or you're gonna need a taste of your own medicine."
[121] Player: "I guess I'll have to figure this out on my own."
[163] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Oh, you flatter an old woman! Me, I'm just here to be a pretty face for the customers. "
[53] Abigail Edwards (Female): "In the town graveyard, I'm afraid. Poor man was always searching for the Flower of Enlightenment. On the way, he tried some... rather daring substance combinations."
[132] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Well, this certainly isn't worth my good health. I'll get you a dose, but I'll have you know, I'm very disappointed in you."
[160] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Chin up, dearie."
[164] Abigail Edwards (Female): "And to keep an extra key to the supply room. For all the times Dr. Williams misplaced his."
[207] Player: "The Flower of Enlightenment?"
[161] Abigail Edwards (Female): "There, and good riddance. That's the last help you're getting from Abigail Edwards. "
[209] Player: "Supply room?"
[210] Player: "Forgetful fellow, eh?"
[208] Abigail Edwards (Female): "It's a Philosophist symbol of some kind, dearie, never you mind. "
[206] Player: "Where's the graveyard?"
[211] Abigail Edwards (Female): "The one upstairs, where we store our medicines."
[212] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Careless experimentation with medicinal substances does take its toll eventually."
[158] Abigail Edwards (Female): "The graveyard's near the southern ruins. You're certainly welcome to pay your respects, but the bodies tend to attract beasties."
[159] Abigail Edwards (Female): "Do be careful. I'd hate for anything to happen to you, dearie."
