[1] Lizzie (Female): "Oh, hi there. Did you come to bring us more of those rocket candies?"
[2] Player: "What are you talking about?"
[3] Lizzie (Female): "You know, the ones that come in a bottle with a rocket ship on the front. "
[13] Lizzie (Female): "They don't taste very good, but they make me feel so nice. Hungry, too."
[11] Player: "Sure, I brought some candies."
[16] Player: "Kid, you are weird. I'm done here."
[12] Player: "I don't have anything like that."
[17] Lizzie (Female): "That's wonderful!"
[18] Lizzie (Female): "That's too bad."
[14] Lizzie (Female): "There was this other man who used to bring them. Not anymore, though."
[19] Player: "Was his name Braxton?"
[15] Player: "What can you tell me about this man?"
[22] Player: "I'm gonna go now."
[25] Player: "Why isn't he bringing you more rocket candies?"
[20] Lizzie (Female): "I don't know. I'm not really supposed to talk to strangers."
[21] Lizzie (Female): "Mama and Papa said he came from the city. When we got sick one time, he brought those candies to make us well again."
[23] Lizzie (Female): "Okay! Maybe I'll see you at dinner?"
[26] Lizzie (Female): "He said they were making us sick. Mama and Papa got real mad at him for that. "
[24] Lizzie (Female): "And they worked! Now, we feel better than ever. Mama says they're a gift from the Eternal."
[27] Lizzie (Female): "They went to have a talk with him. Afterwards, they said he wasn't coming back again."
