[190] GladysCulkelly (Female): "Have you had a moment to look into that little 'opportunity' I told you about on Roseway?"
[191] GladysCulkelly (Female): "You don't hurry up, someone'll get to snoopin' around there before you do."
[45] GladysCulkelly (Female): "You here for a particular reason? Or did the neighbors tell you how good my sugar cookies are? Made without a single natural ingredient or an oven, just like store-bought."
[108] Player: "I investigated that distress signal from Roseway."
[109] GladysCulkelly (Female): "What's that? Speak up, now."
[113] Player: "That excursion you sent me on was no cakewalk, lady."
[110] Player: "About those secrets you asked me to look for..."
[114] GladysCulkelly (Female): "Fair's fair. No one ever said old Gladys was a cheapskate, no sir, and I'm not about to let them start. Here - consider it hazard pay."
[125] GladysCulkelly (Female): "What'd you turn up?"
[129] Player: "I found a formula for experimental rocket fuel. Seems like pretty advanced stuff."
[126] Player: "I found this fancy toothpaste formula. Here you go."
[139] Player: "I found schematics for a prototype weapon from FORCE, and I'm selling. You buying?"
[134] Player: "I acquired some research on raptidon musk. Interested?"
[131] GladysCulkelly (Female): "My stars, what a find. Fine picking like this deserves an equally fine payout. Go on, dearie - and don't spend it all in one place!"
[127] GladysCulkelly (Female): "These corporations, I tell you - once they get an idea into their big, dense heads, there's no gettin' it out again."
[140] GladysCulkelly (Female): "Peaches and cream, if that isn't the most handsome bit of lethal engineering I've seen all week. That'll go for a tidy sum of bits."
[135] GladysCulkelly (Female): "Pardon me, sweetheart - my old ears must've misheard you. Did you say 'raptidon'? Gracious, someone must've hauled them off Monarch. Naughty, naughty."
[128] GladysCulkelly (Female): "Can't imagine how I'll offload this, but waste not, want not, I suppose."
[136] GladysCulkelly (Female): "A couple of folks around here might pay a fair few bits for this. Might even be able to start a bidding war."
