[139] EvaChartrand (Female): "That's far enough. What are you doing here? How did you even get inside?"
[228] Player: "I'm the one asking the questions. "
[229] Player: "Your alien mind tricks won't fool me!"
[232] EvaChartrand (Female): "You're in MY house, and I'm not fucking around. Start talking."
[5] Player: "Lilya Hagen sent me to kill you."
[234] Player: "<Attack> I hate negotiating."
[230] EvaChartrand (Female): "My WHAT? "
[9] EvaChartrand (Female): "Hagen? Never heard of her. Is she from the Board? Damn it, I knew this would happen. "
[231] Player: "<Attack> Let's skip the talk and get to the good part."
[179] Player: "Why would the Board want you dead?"
[18] Player: "Lilya runs Sublight Salvage on Groundbreaker. Good boss. Bit of a live wire."
[180] EvaChartrand (Female): "To keep me quiet. But if you didn't know that, I'm guessing they didn't send you. "
[26] EvaChartrand (Female): "This is utter nonsense. I've never even been to Groundbreaker!"
[181] EvaChartrand (Female): "I always assumed they would put a bullet in my head one of these days. I don't know anyone named Hagen."
[32] Player: "You've been to Cascadia. And Station Ten Eighty-Four. I know all of your dirty secrets."
[45] Player: "<Attack> And you never will."
[182] Player: "Cut the distractions. I know all about your alien conspiracy."
[233] Player: "I came to blow the lid off your alien conspiracy."
[223] EvaChartrand (Female): "What happened to the team? Tell me you didn't move their suspension tanks?"
[224] Player: "SubLight took over the lab. Your human aquariums are probably just office decor. "
[225] Player: "Lilya has orders to airlock your sleeping friends if I don't report in."
[236] EvaChartrand (Female): "Small consolation. My team, the finest minds of their generation... reduced to salvage. "
[238] Player: "At least they're no longer accomplices to your alien conspiracy."
[227] EvaChartrand (Female): "I'll tell you everything, just don't hurt them! Too many people have been harmed on my account."
[237] Player: "What were they trying to prove by experimenting on themselves?"
[183] EvaChartrand (Female): "My WHAT conspiracy? "
[184] EvaChartrand (Female): "Let's talk about this. Please. I think there's been a crucial misunderstanding."
[187] Player: "<Attack> I'm done talking."
[186] Player: "The alien theory did seem a little far-fetched."
[239] EvaChartrand (Female): "We were trying to prove that the colony could survive the crisis bearing down on us. "
[185] Player: "I'm listening."
[188] EvaChartrand (Female): "Just give me a second to explain myself. If you still want to shoot me, at least it'll be for an accurate reason."
[270] Player: "Crisis? What crisis?"
[189] EvaChartrand (Female): "If you came looking for some elaborate scheme... it isn't here. All I'm doing is trying to keep Halcyon alive."
[326] 0232_UDL_Commander (Male): "What are you doing, Doctor? This information is beyond classified."
[327] EvaChartrand (Female): "You can write me up in your report. It hardly matters. "
[190] EvaChartrand (Female): "I'm researching a new way to feed the colony. The crops we transplanted from Earth don't give us the nutrients we need. Our colonists might not realize it yet, but they're starving. "
[226] Player: "<Attack> I'm done talking."
[268] Player: "Wait. You're telling me this was all about vegetables?"
[202] Player: "Do you always have corporate guards in your home?"
[269] EvaChartrand (Female): "Our produce might get us through the day, but we're getting weaker as a species. And sicker."
[235] EvaChartrand (Female): "A recent development, Captain. Apparently someone's broken into the laboratories where I used to work. The Board wanted me... protected."
[191] Player: "This is startling. But it doesn't explain the research I found."
[196] EvaChartrand (Female): "The food we grow here barely sustains human life. The colony won't last under these conditions! So, the Board let me approach the problem from a different angle. "
[197] EvaChartrand (Female): "I believed that I could adapt humans to live on Halcyon's terms... that I could change us, give us the ability to derive sustenance from the nutrients the food does have."
[200] Player: "Adaptation didn't save your research team."
[201] Player: "All you have to show for it is a lab full of preserved colleagues."
[192] Player: "Hold on, what about the aliens?"
[203] Player: "<Attack> Let's see how quickly you can adapt to a bullet."
[211] EvaChartrand (Female): "I know. I was there. Thomas was the first to take the gas. A simple test, he said. I told him not to, but he insisted."
[194] EvaChartrand (Female): "Look around. We're the only intelligent aliens in Halcyon."
[204] EvaChartrand (Female): "Not for lack of trying. I wanted to save them all, but I wasn't strong enough. "
[214] EvaChartrand (Female): "We learned a lot from his autopsy. Enough that we could try it on each other and know when to stop. No one else died! I must find a cure, so his sacrifice isn't in vain."
[272] Player: "You burned through a lot of valuable scientists to arrive at zero solutions."
[273] Player: "I'm surprised you don't have more support from the Board."
[205] EvaChartrand (Female): "I wouldn't allow us to experiment on convicts or the unemployed. It's wrong, no matter what the law says. Everyone agreed. We accepted the risks."
[274] EvaChartrand (Female): "There are other teams. We didn't want to experiment on human test subjects, so we used the only resources we had. Each other."
[208] EvaChartrand (Female): "I'm desperate. I've already asked all the best institutes on Earth for help. Years ago we sent a message out on the Cornelius Vanderbilt, but heard nothing back."
[247] Player: "Enough talk. Where do we go from here?"
[241] Player: "Isn't Cornelius Vanderbilt one of the assault cruisers patrolling Halcyon?"
[102] Player: "The Board wants to "adapt" the entire population of Halcyon?"
[215] Player: "That's a hell of a story. Lilya Hagen still wants me to kill you."
[248] EvaChartrand (Female): "You could always shoot me. I assume that's why you're here. "
[113] EvaChartrand (Female): "It's been missing for over two years now. They never reestablished contact after the skip to Earth. Of course, the Board is keeping that under wraps."
[218] EvaChartrand (Female): "Once we can replicate a success, the Board will move to rewire our nuclein. With any luck, our next generation will be eating and thriving off Halcyon crops. "
[216] EvaChartrand (Female): "If I die, there's no one who can reproduce our work. Every sacrifice will have been for nothing. And we'll be no closer to a solution that feeds the colony. "
[115] EvaChartrand (Female): "The Board is uneasy about letting the colony know, seeing as half of their military force vanished without a trace. "
[318] EvaChartrand (Female): "We haven't made enough strides to advance the plan. Hardly any at all. But we have to keep trying."
[123] Player: "You know Phineas Welles? If you work with him, I'll spare you."
[132] Player: "Keep working with the Board on a plan to save Halcyon. I'll leave you be."
[119] Player: "<Attack> I can't let this go on. Sorry, Doc."
[242] Player: "Lilya sent me after a conspiracy, but it looks like I found a cover-up instead. "
[243] Player: "Colonists might get unruly if they realized there was only one boot on their neck. "
[246] Player: "<Attack> You've told me everything I need to know and more. Goodbye, Doc."
[258] Player: "If the Board's authority is vulnerable, that's a crisis waiting to unfold."
[142] EvaChartrand (Female): "The one on the wanted posters? They say he's an anarchist. A madman. A butcher."
[245] EvaChartrand (Female): "I'd prefer if you didn't use my name when you talk about this. My contract has a list of very terrible consequences for breaking secrecy."
[244] EvaChartrand (Female): "The Board also has its brand to uphold. If you can't trust the brand, what else is there? "
[259] EvaChartrand (Female): "Exactly. If colonists know we can't feed them or protect them, they'll begin to wonder why they need us at all. "
[250] EvaChartrand (Female): "I'll do it. "
[133] EvaChartrand (Female): "You won't regret this. I'm still far from the breakthrough I need, but you're at least giving me a chance. "
[341] 0232_UDL_Commander (Male): "Doctor!"
[342] EvaChartrand (Female): "What choice do I have, Commander?"
[144] Player: "So there really is no alien conspiracy?"
[145] Player: "<Attack> Changed my mind."
[143] Player: "That didn't take much convincing."
[161] Player: "In the future, try and stay away from plans that hack our species."
[252] EvaChartrand (Female): "Alien conspiracy? No. What? Did you hit your head on your way in or something?"
[251] EvaChartrand (Female): "Oh, for pity's sake. I'll make sure you regret this!"
[146] EvaChartrand (Female): "If working with Welles is the only way I can save the colony, then I will damn well do it!"
[162] EvaChartrand (Female): "What kind of scientist would I be if I held to a promise like that?"
[148] EvaChartrand (Female): "I need to get out of here. Phineas can contact me when he's ready to work together. "
[178] EvaChartrand (Female): "For now, I had better pack up the lab and head somewhere discreet."
[325] 0232_UDL_Commander (Male): "Not so fast! Captain, what you just learned is beyond your clearance. Hell, it's beyond mine."
[328] 0232_UDL_Commander (Male): "Give me one reason why I should let you walk out of here alive."
[335] Player: "What if I gave you <oeiglobal>Bribe_Amount</oeiglobal> reasons? "
[334] Player: "Because the fate of the colony is in my hands. "
[340] Player: "It's less work than hauling my corpse out of here?"
[330] Player: "<Attack> Can't think of one."
[339] 0232_UDL_Commander (Male): "That'll do. Sucker."
[337] 0232_UDL_Commander (Male): "You sure have an inflated sense of self-importance. But that doesn't make you wrong."
[331] 0232_UDL_Commander (Male): "Wrong answer."
[338] 0232_UDL_Commander (Male): "Now move along. The Doc has a lot of work ahead of her. Tidying up and such."
