[486] LilyaHagen (Female): "Is it done?"
[68] Player: "I spoke to Chartrand. I'm not going to kill her."
[69] LilyaHagen (Female): "Well damn. The contractor grew a conscience. As your employer I'm both angry and disappointed. I'll add that to your file."
[334] LilyaHagen (Female): "Technically I owe you an exit interview. Care to justify your betrayal of our species, or are we finished here?"
[335] Player: "You misunderstood Chartrand's research. She's our best shot at survival in Halcyon."
[336] Player: "You're crazy, Lilya. I'm not killing someone to feed your paranoia."
[341] Player: "Do I at least get a letter of referral?"
[339] LilyaHagen (Female): "You're awfully quick to trust someone who offed her colleagues and called it a good start."
[340] LilyaHagen (Female): "Seeing as you're the first one to complain about my paranoia, have you ever considered that you might be the problem?"
[342] LilyaHagen (Female): "Oh sure. I'll get right on it. Everyone hear that? Yeah. This guy's getting a letter of referral."
[337] Player: "We're finished here."
[338] LilyaHagen (Female): "Out of my office. We're done."
