[1] LilyaHagen (Female): "So you're the new captain in town. I was hoping you'd make your way to my office. Saves me the work of hunting you down. "
[76] LilyaHagen (Female): "Lilya Hagen, CEO and Executive Director of Aggressive Operations. I'm guessing you already know about SubLight, otherwise you wouldn't have come."
[77] Player: "Name's <oeitoken>PlayerName</oeitoken>, Captain of the Unreliable."
[451] Player: "I'm Captain Hawthorne, the proud owner of the Unreliable."
[432] LilyaHagen (Female): "Charmed."
[452] LilyaHagen (Female): "A little advice? Before you start telling lies, get a feel for who you're talking to. "
[86] LilyaHagen (Female): "It's nice to see the Unreliable again. Useful ship. Hawthorne was my contractor. I'd recognize that leaky boat of his anywhere. "
[87] Player: "I didn't kill him. "
[88] Player: "Don't let ADA hear you calling her ship names."
[95] LilyaHagen (Female): "I didn't ask."
[104] LilyaHagen (Female): "Is ADA still at the helm? I don't know how many times I told Hawthorne to restore that smart ass to factory settings."
[106] Player: "Get to the point, Hagen. "
[53] LilyaHagen (Female): "I have a salvage job for someone light on corporate ties with a reliable set of wings. But there's a catch."
[96] LilyaHagen (Female): "If you have a Navkey to Stellar Bay, the job's yours. Interested?"
[56] Player: "I can get into Stellar Bay. Tell me about the job."
[100] Player: "What's so special about Stellar Bay?"
[98] Player: "Not interested."
[109] LilyaHagen (Female): "One of my guys in Stellar Bay has a lead on some high-grade salvage, but he went dark before he could spill the goods."
[101] LilyaHagen (Female): "First, an embargo that's been active ever since the Board pulled its forces off world. Few regulations, plenty of freedom. Second, all the goodies that no one had time to pack."
[99] LilyaHagen (Female): "Too bad. You know where to find me when you're ready to pursue a respectable career. "
[43] LilyaHagen (Female): "We arranged a drop at the saltuna warehouse's loading dock. Find whatever he left there and take it to Fallbrook. My gal Catherine will be expecting you."
[44] Player: "I'll take the job."
[110] Player: "What's SubLight doing in Fallbrook?"
[113] Player: "What kind of salvage are we looking for?"
[45] LilyaHagen (Female): "Now get going. Catherine will brief you on the details when you check in with her at Fallbrook. "
[111] LilyaHagen (Female): "A few of my contractors run flights in there and out again, "working around" the Board embargo. "
[114] LilyaHagen (Female): "When the Board pulled out of Monarch, they buried or sealed anything they couldn't carry off world."
[346] LilyaHagen (Female): "We keep the community lubricated with a steady supply of booze and unconventional erotica. Byzantium kids with more money than sense can thank SubLight for their good time."
[112] LilyaHagen (Female): "We keep the community lubricated with a steady supply of booze and unconventional erotica. Byzantium kids with more money than sense can thank SubLight for their good time."
[115] LilyaHagen (Female): "Apparently, one of Catherine's teams uncovered an abandoned lab with full tanks of Alta-Vitae gas."
[116] LilyaHagen (Female): "One last thing. When you're on the job, keep a pair of eyes on the back of your head. Understood?"
[119] Player: "Sounds shady."
[348] Player: "Anything else I should know about Monarch?"
[118] Player: "What am I looking for?"
[307] Player: "How unconventional? Asking for a friend."
[310] Player: "Why do you need me if you already have people on the ground?"
[122] LilyaHagen (Female): "Could be."
[349] LilyaHagen (Female): "Few laws and even fewer people to enforce them. If you're working for the right side, it's a fucking paradise. "
[117] Player: "Understood."
[120] LilyaHagen (Female): "Don't go looking for anything. Except salvage. Just watch out. "
[309] LilyaHagen (Female): "One of my guys filmed a raptidon grinding on an automech. Didn't end well for anyone, including the cameraman."
[311] LilyaHagen (Female): "Catherine is tied up with other matters, and I don't want her bothered. I told her I'd be sending my best fixer. Try and play the part."
[121] LilyaHagen (Female): "You'll do fine. Probably nothing to worry about. Probably."
