Area Chairs

Key-Sun Choi (Korea Advanced Institute of Science and Technology, Korea)

Machine Translation and Multilinguality

Walter Daelmans (University of Antwerp, Belgium)

Machine Learning and Statistical Methods for Syntax

Dan Jurafsky (University of Colorado, USA)

Speech, Systems and Evaluation

Yuji Matsumoto (Nara Institute of Science and Technology, Japan)

Syntax, Grammars and Morphology

Johanna D. Moore (University of Edinburgh, UK)

Discourse, Dialogue and Generation

Martha S. Palmer (University of Pennsylvania, USA)

Lexicon and Semantics

Ellen Riloff (University of Utah, USA)

Corpus-based and Statistical Natural Language Processing

Giorgio Satta (University of Padua, Italy)

Parsing Algorithms and Models

Theme Chairs

Sanda M. Harabagiu (Southern Methodist University, USA)

NLP and Open-Domain Question Answering from Text

Antal van den Bosch (ILK, Tilburg University, The Netherlands)

Emiel Krahmer (IPO, Eindhoven Technical University, The Netherlands)

Maria Wolters (IKP, University of Bonn, Germany)

Machine Learning and Statistical NLP for Dialogue

Inderjeet Mani (The Mitre Corporation)

Text Summarization

Hitoshi Isahara (Communications Research Laboratory, Japan)

Rajeev Sangal (Indian Institute of Information Technology, India)

Ming Zhou (Microsoft Research, China)

Theoretical and Technical Approaches for Asian Language Processing:

Similarities and Differences among Languages
