

[1] Bertrand_Fallbrook (Male): "Damn it all! Now look what you've done! It'll take me ages to round 'em up again."

[3] Bertrand_Fallbrook (Male): "State your purpose or get out of my face, domicile-intruder!"

[4] Player: "I'm looking for some missing sprats. You wouldn't have seen any... around?"

[24] Player: "No need to get testy."

[5] Bertrand_Fallbrook (Male): "Missing? Nope, nope... Mine are all found and accounted for, thank you kindly. Now if that'll be all..."

[25] Bertrand_Fallbrook (Male): "THERE. IS. PLENTY. OF. NEED! "

[6] Bertrand_Fallbrook (Male): "I've got an animal rescue service to oversee, and it ain't easy. Lots to do. Got a multitude of sprats to spay and feed."

[7] Player: "Rescue sprats. As in rescued from SubLight's shipping tunnels?"

[26] Player: "These sprats you stole are drug carriers. I'm here to retrieve the goods."

[28] Bertrand_Fallbrook (Male): "Day in, day out, they ran their little route, getting picked off along the way! What was I to do, turn a blind eye? Malin's an animal lover. She won't hold my actions against me."

[8] Bertrand_Fallbrook (Male): "Look, I don't care if Nelson sent you or not. You won't be hurting a hair on any of these sprats' heads. I've killed vicious beasts for them. I ain't afraid to take on a human."

[14] Bertrand_Fallbrook (Male): "Back out of this domicile, hands up, or become sprat food, intruder."

[15] Player: "I won't hurt your sprats. The drugs have probably passed through their digestive tracts already."

[29] Player: "No need for vivisection. Sprats possess rapid digestive systems."

[9] Player: "<Attack> Sounds like an extermination's in order."

[10] Bertrand_Fallbrook (Male): "You want to dig through sprat droppings, be my guest. Get your drugs. Then get lost."
