

[1] WandaDorsett (Female): "Can't say I've seen you before. I take it you're a freighter captain?"

[3] WandaDorsett (Female): "If you're here to better yourself, you'll have to wait. We're having a spot of trouble with our delivery service."

[38] Player: ""Better myself?" Isn't this the medbay?"

[39] WandaDorsett (Female): "Sure is. You need a deft hand to straighten a busted nose or sparkle up those not so pearly whites, I'm your gal."

[41] WandaDorsett (Female): ""Course, there's not much cosmetic improvement going on at the moment, not without my mechanicals. Where the Law is Irion, anyway?"

[47] Player: "Whoever he is, he's not my problem."

[48] WandaDorsett (Female): "You have yourself a day, then."

[49] Player: "You do cosmetic surgery on this rickety space station? Really?"

[50] WandaDorsett (Female): "Sure. How do you think we keep this pile of junk in the sky? It costs bits, and a little prettying up brings in a fair few of 'em."

[51] WandaDorsett (Female): "Or it would, if I had my danged mechanicals."

[82] Player: "Wheeler says your shipment won't be coming in soon."

[10] Player: "What's going on?"

[2] Player: "Wheeler told me to tell you to get off his ass about your shipment."

[4] WandaDorsett (Female): "Did he, now? The mouth on that man, I swear - his late mother'd be ashamed."

[11] WandaDorsett (Female): "I'm expecting our delivery fellow to stop through with medical supplies and service automechanicals. Name's Captain Irion."

[14] WandaDorsett (Female): "He must be referring to Irion. I'm sure the fool's gotten himself into another scrape."

[58] WandaDorsett (Female): "I'm beginning to wonder if I'm ever going to get my service mechanicals at this rate."

[16] Player: "Who's Irion?"

[36] WandaDorsett (Female): "Our delivery man."

[32] WandaDorsett (Female): "A brave idiot with a penchant for getting himself delayed... sometimes by dates, usually by bandits."

[15] Player: "I could try to find him."

[18] WandaDorsett (Female): "I'd be grateful if you'd spare the time. We need his delivery soon as yesterday."

[33] WandaDorsett (Female): "Last he told me, he was taking a 'shortcut' by Scylla, an asteroid in the Charybdis Cluster. That's where I'd start, were I the adventuring type."

[44] WandaDorsett (Female): "You look out, though. The place is probably crawling with outlaws."

[57] Player: "What do you need mechanicals for?"

[59] WandaDorsett (Female): "Surgery, mostly. Medical personnel are difficult to come by on Groundbreaker."

[61] Player: "Why's that?"

[62] WandaDorsett (Female): "The Board won't let their doctors and nurses station here, and they own all the medical schools. If we can't hire their people, we can't hire anyone."

[63] WandaDorsett (Female): "Everyone on staff here on Groundbreaker was trained by me or Idris. We're good, don't get me wrong, but we've only two heads between us, and we don't know everything."

[83] Player: "I'll be on my way."
