- B4. Did you discuss the steps taken to check whether the data that was collected/used contains any information that names or uniquely identifies individual people or offensive content, and the steps taken to protect/anonymize it?

We identify FOMC speakers by name, but these speakers are public figures whose consent is implicit given their professional roles.

Yes, Table 6

C. Did you run computational experiments?

- C2. Did you discuss the experimental setup, including hyperparameter search and best-found hyperparameter values?

Appendix, Section D

- C3. Did you report descriptive statistics about your results (e.g., error bars around results, summary statistics from sets of experiments), and is it transparent whether you are reporting the max, mean, etc. or just a single run?

D. Did you use human annotators (e.g., crowdworkers) or research with human subjects?

- D1. Did you report the full text of instructions given to participants, including e.g., screenshots, disclaimers of any risks to participants or annotators, etc.?

Appendix, Section B

- D3. Did you discuss whether and how consent was obtained from people whose data you're using/curating (e.g., did your instructions explain how the data would be used)?

Raw transcripts are released by the FOMC directly for public transparency

- D4. Was the data collection protocol approved (or determined exempt) by an ethics review board?

Not applicable for IRB (in-house annotators)

E. Did you use AI assistants (e.g., ChatGPT, Copilot) in your research, coding, or writing?
