

7th
International Conference
on Spoken
Language Processing

September
16-20, 2002
Denver,
Colorado, USA

Reliability Measures for Translation Quality

Eiichiro Sumita, Yasuhiro Akiba, Kenji Imamura

ATR Spoken Language Research Laboratories, Japan

This paper proposes new reliability measures on translation quality. A reliability measure is important for a translation system to select the best one of multiple translations. The proposed measures are independent of translation systems, so they are applicable to any translation system. Experiments on selection proved the effectiveness of our measures.

Full Paper

Bibliographic reference. Sumita, Eiichiro / Akiba, Yasuhiro / Imamura, Kenji (2002): "Reliability measures for translation quality", In ICSLP-2002, 1893-1896.